BhanuPrakash Eenadula

Intern

B. Tech student at the Indian Institute of Information Technology with a passion for technology and programming. Proficient in C, C++, and Python, demonstrated by a real-time mouse control code. Knowledgeable in the basics of web development including HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I am currently learning Flutter and Dart for mobile app development across Android and iOS platforms. I am eager to bring my technical abilities and drive to a challenging and dynamic work environment.
